

LSAT Meeting Minutes

June 1, 2021

Attendees: Kalyn Blueitt, Thomas Quigley, Julie Hamlin, Margaret Boyd, Lavinia Mitchell, Dr. Calvin Hooks, Jennifer Chaggaris, Aleta Alsop, and Katie Mustian

Meeting began at 4:00pm

Petition for a New Position

- Our request was not approved.

Staffing for School Year 2021-22

- We have added a 4th grade classroom and we have a second-grade teacher position.
- We have hired 2 teachers for next school year.

CSP (Comprehensive School Plan)

- Phase 1 of the school plan is discussed this week and will be submitted next week.
- Dr. Hooks will email out Phase 1 of the CSP draft this week.
- LSAT members will need to come to school to sign off on the plan. We need to have at least 1 parent signature.

LSAT Elections:

- Members can serve as many times as they want as long as they are reelected.
- First, we will hold nominations online for parents or guardians to nominate themselves or others.
- Nominating forms will be in the family newsletters and nominations will be held for 2 weeks starting June 1st. Hyde-Addison LSAT Parent/Guardian Nominations \(office.com\)
- Those nominated will be in the family newsletter with a couple of lines about why they want to serve on the LSAT.
- Elections will be open for 2 weeks. Parents/guardians get to vote once, online, and anonymously.
- Teachers are elected through WTU elections.
- The LSAT community member is chosen in the fall; collectively by LSAT members.

DCPS Plans for School Year 2021-22

- The plan is for everyone to be in-person. Principals are waiting on feedback about the 3ft of social distancing.
- Principals have a call with the chancellor this week for more details about planning for next year, including virtual learning options.

Foxhall Meeting

- Dr. Hooks will attend the Foxhall meeting tonight at 6:30 p.m. to learn about the next steps and how it could affect the Hyde feeder pattern in the future.

Equity and Anti-Racism

- The DCPS office of Equity and Anti-Racism would like us to share the equity and anti-racism work of some of the Hyde students.

Meeting ended at approximately 4:14 pm
